LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board met at 10 A.M. yesterday, all the members present. A. Burns appeared before the Board and complained of certain obstructions to the road leading from J Street, at a point near the house of George Luck, north to the lands of Mr. Burns. On motion of Mr. Bailey the Clerk was instructed to notify the Overseer of the District that an examination of the lawfulness of the obstructions from said road, W. H. Butler, presented a communication stating that he had tendered to Wendell Kaerth and B. W. Wilder the amount of damages awarded in the examination of lands in the District No. 10, and that they had accepted it. It was then ordered that the District Attorney of the county commence proceedings to procure the right of way over the lands of Messrs. Kaerth and Wilder. Subsequently the lands accepted the amount awarded him. Mr. Wilson, at the afternoon session, moved that the Hall of Records be accepted as complete, in accordance with the contract. Mr. Blair seconded it, and it was voted the roll of the Hall of Records be accepted. A vote of thanks was then tendered to Messrs. Carl and L. B. Buckley, members in which they had performed the contract in the construction of the Hall of Records.

HOLD FOR PLEASURE.—On the 15th of April, 1880, Charles Shear was sued by L. C. Chapman in behalf of Butler and Davis for a monthly rent of a saloon, the "Golden Fleece" and K. K. K. on the 1st street. Shear produced a receipt for the rent, purporting to be signed by Chandler, and swore that he paid Chandler the money, as the receipt shows. The receipt was held by the Court to be forged, and Chandler acknowledged it was forged and rejected the plaintiff for $40. Afterwards Chandler instituted proceedings for recovery against Shear in the Police Court. At that examination he acknowledged that he had paid the rent. On the 15th of April the proceedings were dismissed in the Police Court. In Ju-dice Tubs' Court yesterday, Shear was arraigned upon a complaint sworn to by a former charwoman, who had been committed pending trial. Justice Himes' Court should fear to do right. [Applause.] He admitted the liquor dealers for their candel, boldness and fearlessness, and he read from the Record-Union to show that the honest men of the community had been deceived by the men who wanted to have a foothold in the minority for its prostitution is ready for harboring. [Applause.] It is a question whether the rum shop shall have the right to open its doors and go on with its brawling, and shame the lovers of peace and order. When Californians say that you can't enforce the Sunday law, they confess there is here a great evil greater than that of the Sabbath. [Applause.] Every political party would be accepted as members.

The meeting then adjourned, and large numbers came up and paid down their names for the new society.

SUNDAY-LAW MEETING.

holding the law was sound, unshaken. In October last the new Supreme Court, sitting in bank, had again held

THE SUPPORTERS OF THE SUNDAY LAW DEFENDERS WERE UPON THE LICENSED DEALERS' RESOLUTIONS AND SPACES.

A meeting called for all those in favor of law and order and the enforcement of the Sunday law was held at the Congregational Church last evening. About four hundred and fifty persons were in attendance and were very enthusiastic. While the audience was assembling, a congregational singing was indulged in, a circular sheet of songs issued by Dr. McDonald, of San Francisco, President of the Home Protection League, being used, and the singing was led by a tenor singer to the accompaniment of an organ provided by John F. Cooper. The singing was very pleasing, and was very generally joined in by the audience.

Shortly after 8 o'clock W. R. Starn called to order and the meeting had been called by many lovers of law and order who desired action taken for the enforcement of the Sunday law and a consideration of the situation of the community in the matter. The audience was unanimous in favor of the Sunday law and the adoption of a resolution to that effect.

The chairman invited Rev. T. S. Dunn to invoke the divine blessing on the cause in the interest of which the meeting was called.

Rev. Mr. Dunn was unanimously elected. On taking the chair he congratulated the audience that it was a law and order meeting; over no other word, he continued. A vote of thanks was passed in the community, fed by money. It is for the people to say whether it shall live and disorder prevail. There were those present who would fight on principle, but because the saloons could not be made to close, the saloons could open again on Sunday. Were she a man and a voter she would stand up for the law. The ten persons who voted for the law, when the local option was voted, were unanimous.

The liquor sellers follow, and submit to the Sunday law that is held to be constitutional. Could a test vote be taken the majority of the people are in favor of the Sunday law and the enforcement of the law.
